New pressure on the market

Solid C – the new standard in centrifugal pumps for sanitary applications

Solid value

Your solid process partner

Just as SolidC™ offers more value for money, Alfa Laval offers more than an ordinary supplier. We have learnt about your business to help you achieve profitable operation. Backed up by our global parts and service network, our cost-effective solutions are specifically designed to optimize your process and provide nonstop performance in your plant.

SolidC™ is not just another sanitary pump. For a wide range of duties in your plant, SolidC will give more value for money than any pump in its class on the market.

The quiet, compact SolidC has the same superior long-life shaft seal as pumps in Alfa Laval's premium LKH range. The impeller, shaft and housing are optimized for maximum efficiency and minimum power consumption. The finely balanced shaft minimizes bearing wear and ensures a long service lifetime. Servicing is fast and easy. The seal can be replaced in just a few minutes without removing the backplate. Maintenance is simple as well. Best of all, where downtime is costly, SolidC won't let you down.
